Our 10th Annual Conference!!

PROJECT-BASED LEARNING CONFERENCE 10.0

Regis College, Weston, MA

Hands-On • Work with Peers • Create PBL Concepts for Your Classroom • Meet Experienced P-BL Teachers + Students

SAVE THE DATE Friday 25th October 2019

Student speakers from Massachusetts elementary, middle, and high schools

ALIGNED WITH PBLworks AMERICA'S FOREMOST PROPONENT OF PROJECT-BASED LEARNING

The Conference

This conference is to familiarize teachers with project-based learning (PBL) through hands-on experiences that will raise their understanding of its daily practice. We hope to make it easier for teachers to boost PBL into the mainstream of classroom delivery in New England.

This conference is "hands-on."

- Meet teachers who have successfully used P-BL in their classrooms
- Talk with experienced PBL students
- Create PBL lesson plans with peers in small groups, guided by the experienced P-BL educators

Date and Place

Friday 25th October 2019

9:00 to 3:00, Registration opens at 8:00
Upper Student Union Lounge, Alumnae Hall

Keynote Speaker

Rob Riordan Equity, Innovation and PBL: Notes from the Field

Rob Riordan is a co-founder of High Tech High in San Diego and President Emeritus of its Graduate School of Education, the nation's first to be situated wholly in a K-12 environment. A lifelong educator, he has co-developed 14 new schools spanning the K-12 years, focused on equity, innovation, and community. He has worked with educators around the world to transform the social relations of schooling by fostering project-based, dialogical approaches to teaching and learning. His work is best described in his chapter, "Schools as Equitable Communities of Inquiry" in Sustainability, Human Well-Being, and the Future of Education (2018).

Student Speakers

Elementary, middle, and high school students will share their PBL experiences.
