

P-BL8.0

PROJECT-BASED LEARNING CONFERENCE 8.0 Regis College, Weston, MA

Hands-On • Work with Peers • Create P-BL Concepts for Your Classroom • Meet Experienced P-BL Teachers + Students

ALIGNED WITH THE BUCK INSTITUTE FOR EDUCATION, AMERICA'S FOREMOST PROPONENT OF PROJECT-BASED LEARNING

TUESDAY 24th October 2017

Student speakers from Massachusetts elementary, middle, and high schools

The Conference

This conference is to familiarize teachers with project-based learning (P-BL) through hands-on experiences that will raise their understanding of its daily practice. We hope to make it easier for teachers to boost P-BL into the mainstream of classroom delivery in New England.

This conference is “hands-on.”

- Meet teachers who have successfully used P-BL in their classrooms
- Talk with experienced P-BL students
- Create P-BL lesson plans with peers in small groups, guided by the experienced P-BL educators

Date and Place

Tuesday 24th October 2017

9:00 to 3:00, Registration opens at 8:00
Upper Student Union Lounge, Alumnae Hall

Regis College, Weston, MA

Keynote Speaker

Jennifer Klein, a Buck Institute for Education national faculty member, facilitates workshops and provides strategic coaching to schools on project-based learning. Founder of Principled Learning Strategies, she leads professional development on the integration of student-driven global learning experiences. A writer, speaker and workshop facilitator, Jennifer strives to inspire educators to shift to more integrated, authentic, active and engaged practices. Her book, Global Education Guidebook:
